Points made by def. in error

1. No seal affixed to Notary's certificate of affidavit to petition. Hence if writ of certiorari issued at all, it issued upon a petition not verified by affidavit. 2 Sec. 55.
2. No writ of certiorari ~~among the files~~ on the files of the Circuit Court, and no evidence that a writ ever issued.
3. No ^{certified} transcript of judgment & proceedings of the Justice on the files of the Circuit Court.
4. Nothing purporting to be a return of the Justice to the writ of certiorari. Without a writ and a return to the same by the Justice, there was no writ pending in the Circuit Court and the case was properly stricken from the docket.
3 Wipacini 337 - 2 Isidell 121 - 1 Conn 212
5. No exception taken to the ruling of the Court below and no bill of exceptions taken.
6. Writ of attachment issued by the Justice was issued in the mode prescribed by statute. Actual notice not being required by law, the want of it is no reason for granting certiorari.

The 2, 4, 5, & 6 points apply to the case of Dwyer v. Gallimore
