

John White & David Barnes

William W. Williams } Appeal from Hamilton opposed by Griffiths }

This is the case of an appeal from a Sentence of the Peace to the Circuit Court and from the Circuit Court. The cause was tried in the Circuit Court within a day of Hamilton to this Court. The Plffs in error, who were defendants in the Circuit Court, took an exception to the Judgment of the Circuit Court on the evidence on the cause, on the day after the rendition of final Judgment.

It will be perceived that this case comes directly within the principles of the decision in the case of Liverpool vs. Doreen decided at this Term. That no Bill of exceptions lies to the Judgment of the Circuit Court.

The Judgment of the Circuit Court is necessarily affirmed, with costs.
