Pages 4 & 5

April Term 1852—Cause tried by court by consent, who found defendant guilty, but did not find the estate of the plaintiffs, and rendered judgement for plaintiffs, but ordered no writ of possession.

The plaintiff in error assigns for error.

1st. That the Court below did not find the estate of the plaintiffs in the premises.

2d. That the declarations was insufficient to give the County jurisdiction, in failing to show that the premises were situated in Monroe County.

That it does not appear that any declaration was filed before the judgement was rendered: Wherefore the plaintiff in error pray that said judgement may be reversed &c.
