Attachment

Be it Remembered that on the Trial of this cause the Plaintiff introduced & read in evidence the following paper writing, that is to say, Cook County Court of Common Pleas Stephen Hoyt and George C. Green

v
Pierre Bourlier

It is submitted that the following facts will be proved to by Plaintiffs Witness Herman J. Hefel and the same are received in evidence in the case.

That the goods in the annexed Bill were purchased from the Plaintiffs by defendant & received by him at the times named in said Bill & for the prices therein named. That they were purchased under an original understanding that all goods purchased of the Plaintiffs by the Defendant were to be paid for on the first day of every month succeeding the purchase. That three or four days prior to the second day of December A. D. 1854 Plaintiffs by their Agent Herman J. Hefel (the witness) called upon the defendant & demanded payment for the amount then due and presented a Bill of items similar to the one annexed, and left the same with Defendant that Deft said he was not able to pay them, and proposed to give the Plaintiffs his two several promissory Notes payable each for one half the amount due and to mature one on the seventh day of December A. D. 1854 and the other eight or ten days after. The Agent then upon consulting with the Plaintiffs declined receiving the Notes unless satisfactorily indorsed. Afterwards and on the second of December A. D. 1854 the Plaintiffs Agent again called upon Deft and demanded payment for the Goods. Defendant repeatedly said he could not pay them, Plaintiffs Agent then told him they wanted the amount secured by Goods. Deft said he had sent his Goods all to Chicago, the only way he could settle the amount was by his drafts on his Brother E. Bourlier at Chicago, the Agents instructions not allowing him to take the Drafts. He again consulted the Plaintiffs & received instructions from them to take Defendants drafts as collateral security. Then the Agent went to Defendant & told him what his instructions were, then the Agent went to Plffs Office & got blanks & filled them & dated them according to Defts wish. Deft remarking that excluding them that no payment would be made for certain then according to his instructions, the Agent took the drafts and gave the Deft a receipt stating that they were received as Collateral security for payment of Goods bought of Plaintiff then due and also stating the amount of each Draft & its date & then signed the same "Stephen Hoyt & Co per Hope".

And it is also admitted that the two Bills of Exchange hereto attached are the same which were given Plffs by Deft and that the same have remained in the possession of the Plaintiffs ever since. The above evidence is admitted for the purpose of dispensing with the personal attendance of the Witness who resides at St. Louis. It is also stipulated that said cause may be tried by the Court at the present term of said Court. Hoyt & Miller Plffs Attys.

Hannover & Burgess. Defts Attys.

Human T. Hefse being duly sworn doth depose & say that the statements set forth in the foregoing are true so far as he can remember the same and according to his best recollection.
