Bernard Donnelly } vs } Appeal from Robert Hanns & al } J. Darniss

Now comes the Said Appellants and enter their motion herein to Dismiss the Said Appeal and for Cause show to the Court.

That as appears from the Record the Said Appellant Donnelly recovered in the Court below a Judgment Against Appelles for the sum of $50 & costs of suit See Record p 20-

And the Law is settled that an Appeal can only be had by the party against whom a judgment is rendered.

See Addison vs Farnestock 15 Ill 448

which was dismissed for the very reason above urged
