SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

THIRD GRAND DIVISION.

APRIL TERM, 1861.

AUGUSTIN CHESTER and	} MARIETTE N. CHESTER, his wife, Appellants,
vs.
JULIAN S. RUMSEY,	}
Appellee.

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES OF APPELLEE.

I.

The first assignment of error is, we think, improperly made, and cannot be entertained by the Court, because the motion by the plaintiff below to withdraw the replication and file an amended replication, is a motion addressed to the discretion of the Court, and cannot therefore be assigned for error.

Clemson & Waters vs. The President and Directors of The State Bank of Illinois, 1 Scam., 45.

Phillips vs. Dana, 1 Scam., 498.

Warren vs. McHatton, 2 Scam., 32.

II.

The second assignment of error is not good, because

1. The defendant below, after the demurrer to the replication was overruled, took issue upon it and went to trial, thereby waiving his demurrer.

Peck vs. Boggess, 1 Scam., 281.

Wann vs. McGoon, 2 Scam., 77.

Gilbert vs. Maggord, 1 Scam., 471.

2. Because the evidence in the first trial upon the issues made by the plea in abatement and replication do not appear upon the record, and the Court therefore cannot determine whether there was error in the judgment of the Court below or not.

III.

The third assignment of error is obnoxious to the same objection as the latter portion of the second assignment.

IV.

The first three assignments of error are all bad, because

1. The record does not show that the defendants below excepted to the judgment of the court upon the issues or the plea in abatement, and refusing a new trial.

Dickhu vs. Durrell, 11 Ill., 72.

Smith vs. Cahill, 17 Ill., 67.

2. Because the defendants below, by taking a new trial under the statute, abandoned their rights, if they had any, of having the proceedings and judgment of the Court in that trial reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Harrison vs. Clark, 1 Scam., 131.

The remaining assignments of error question the validity of the mortgage from the appellants, Chester and wife, to George F. Rumsey, and the deed from G. F. Rumsey to the appellee, based upon the mortgage.

The appellee acquires title as purchaser at a public sale, under the power contained in the mortgage from Chester and wife to G. F. Rumsey.

The principal, and we believe the only objection urged to the mortgage is, that the acknowledgement was inoperative and insufficient in law to pass the estate of the wife of the appellant, Augustin Chester.

2. Because the evidence in the first trial upon the issues made by the plea in abatement and replication do not appear upon the record, and the Court therefore cannot determine whether there was error in the judgment of the Court below or not.

III.

The third assignment of error is obnoxious to the same objection as the latter portion of the second assignment.

IV.

The first three assignments of error are all bad, because

1. The record does not show that the defendants below excepted to the judgment of the court upon the issues or the plea in abatement, and refusing a new trial.

Dickhu vs. Durrell, 11 Ill., 72.

Smith vs. Cahill, 17 Ill., 67.

2. Because the defendants below, by taking a new trial under the statute, abandoned their rights, if they had any, of having the proceedings and judgment of the Court in that trial reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Harrison vs. Clark, 1 Scam., 131.

The remaining assignments of error question the validity of the mortgage from the appellants, Chester and wife, to George F. Rumsey, and the deed from G. F. Rumsey to the appellee, based upon the mortgage.

The appellee acquires title as purchaser at a public sale, under the power contained in the mortgage from Chester and wife to G. F. Rumsey.

The principal, and we believe the only objection urged to the mortgage is, that the acknowledgement was inoperative and insufficient in law to pass the estate of the wife of the appellant, Augustin Chester.

2. Because the evidence in the first trial upon the issues made by the plea in abatement and replication do not appear upon the record, and the Court therefore cannot determine whether there was error in the judgment of the Court below or not.

III.

The third assignment of error is obnoxious to the same objection as the latter portion of the second assignment.

IV.

The first three assignments of error are all bad, because

1. The record does not show that the defendants below excepted to the judgment of the court upon the issues or the plea in abatement, and refusing a new trial.

Dickhu vs. Durrell, 11 Ill., 72.

Smith vs. Cahill, 17 Ill., 67.

2. Because the defendants below, by taking a new trial under the statute, abandoned their rights, if they had any, of having the proceedings and judgment of the Court in that trial reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Harrison vs. Clark, 1 Scam., 131.

The remaining assignments of error question the validity of the mortgage from the appellants, Chester and wife, to George F. Rumsey, and the deed from G. F. Rumsey to the appellee, based upon the mortgage.

The appellee acquires title as purchaser at a public sale, under the power contained in the mortgage from Chester and wife to G. F. Rumsey.

The principal, and we believe the only objection urged to the mortgage is, that the acknowledgement was inoperative and insufficient in law to pass the estate of the wife of the appellant, Augustin Chester.

George F. Rumsey and wife conveyed the land in question to the appellee, Mariette N. Chester, the wife of the other appellant, and she, with her husband, on the same day mortgaged back the premises to him to secure a portion of the purchase money, and this fact is stated in the mortgage.

Was the acknowledgement to the mortgage sufficient to pass her estate?

1. It conforms in every particular with the statute as to the form for the conveyance of the wife's estate.

II Purp. Stat., page 157, Chap. 24, Sec. 17.

It states that "the contents were made known and explained to her," and that "she does not wish to retract."

These words were wanting in the acknowledgement in Hughes vs. Lane, 11 Ill., 123.

In that case the Court held the acknowledgement valid to pass the wife's estate.

A similar acknowledgement to that in Hughes vs. Lane, was passed upon by the Court in Garrett et al. vs. Moss et al., 22 Ill., 363.

and the case of Hughes vs. Lane was recognized and affirmed.

2. The counsel for the appellant cites principally the case of Lane vs. Dolick et al., 6 McLean, 200.

and upon this case reliance is placed by him especially.

A reference to the case and the reasoning contained in it will satisfy the court that it is not at all analagous to the case now before the court, and is decided upon facts and circumstances entirely different.

In the case of Lane vs. Dolick, the conveyance was made by the wife, for the purpose of paying her husband's debts, of property which she had by inheritance in her own right before marriage.

Here the mortgage is for the purchase money of the very property mortgaged.

There the acknowledgement omitted to state that "the contents of the instrument were made known and explained to her," and "that she does not wish to retract," (as required by law.)

Here both those facts are distinctly stated.

There the court bases its decision upon the assumption that the wife did not understand what she was conveying, because "the contents were not explained to her," and nothing on the face of the instrument told her what she was doing. She might well therefore believe she was only parting with her dower.

Here she knew, from the face of the deed, that she was securing the purchase money, on the very property conveyed to her, and this fact was explained to her.

There the Court say the acknowledgement is only a release of dower, because it omits the requirements of the statute "explaining," and "does not wish to retract," &c.

Here both these are certified to distinctly.

There the Court say, on page 206, "I do not go the extent of saying, that whenever an acknowledgement contains a relinquishment of dower, it follows as a necessary consequence in all cases that the wife's estate will not pass," &c.

His decision is based upon an entirely different state of facts, and acknowledgement from the present.

There are two reasons why this case is much stronger than either Hughes vs. Lane, 11 Ill., 113, or Lane vs. Dolick, 6 McLean, 200.

1. Both those cases were conveyances by the wife after marriage, of her own property, acquired by inheritance before her marriage.

This is a mortgage back to secure part of the purchase money for the property mortgaged.

If the conveyance had been made by G. F. Rumsey to the husband, the wife would not have been obliged to be joined in the mortgage at all made to secure the purchase money. She would have had no dower in the land as against the mortgagee. She cannot by any possibility set up her ignorance of the character of the title she acquired from Rumsey, and of the nature of the mortgage she gave him.

2. Both the deeds in those cases were made before the passage of the confirmatory or remedial Act of Feb. 11, 1853.

I Purp. Stat., p. 167.

which provides "that no deed, mortgage, &c., heretofore executed or hereafter to be executed by husband and wife in good faith, to convey or encumber the estate of either husband or wife, and acknowledged before a proper officer, &c., shall be held invalid

"or defective in law by reason of any informality in setting forth
"the particulars of the acknowledgement in the certificate: Provided "that it appears in substance, from the certificate, that the parties "executing the instrument executed it freely and voluntarily, and "that in case of married women, it appears in substance, that they "knew the contents of the instrument, and were examined separate and
"apart from their husbands."

If there is anything at all in the point made, as to the acknowledgement, it is certainly obviated by this Act.

In Hughes vs. Lane, the deed was made in 1836, and the case decided in 1849, before the passage of this Act.

The case in 6 McLean was decided in 1854, upon a deed made in 1834.

The remedial Act is not referred in the decision in 6 McLean, either because not presented by counsel, or because the Court held it to be not retroactive, but proactive in its operation.

The deed now before the Court was made in 1856, after the passage of the remedial act.

If the requirements of the statute are substantially complied with, the certificate of acknowledgement is sufficient.

McConnell vs. Read, 2 Scam., 371.
McConnell vs. Johnson, 2 Scam., 523.
Livingston vs. Kittell, 1 Gilm., 116.
Vance vs. Schuyler, 1 Gilm., 160.
Delaunay vs. Burnett, 4 Gilm., 454.
Nantz vs. Bailey, 3 Dana, (Ky.) 111.
McIntyre vs. Ward, 5 Binney, (Pa.) 296.
Shaller vs. Brand, 6 Binney, (Pa.) 438.
Stephens vs. Doe, 6 Blackford, (Ind.) 475.
Chemist vs. Shane, 16 Ohio, 599.
Ruffner vs. McLenan et al., 16 Ohio, 639.
Doe dem. Ravisty and Wife vs. Fridge, 3
McLean, 245.
Talbot vs. Simpson, 1 Peters' C. C., 188.
Dennis vs. Tarpenny, 20 Barb., (N. Y.) 371.
Dundas vs. Hitchcock, 12 Howard, U. S.
Sup. Ct., 256.

The argument in the last case is specially referred to as deciding that the intention of the parties is to be gathered from the instrument itself, and that substantial compliance with the statute, as to the acknowledgement, only is required.

It has been, however, expressly decided that the insertion of the words, "and relinquishes her dower," &c., do not limit the estate which the wife passes, provided that the statute is complied with in the form of the acknowledgement.

18 Miss., (3 Bennett,) 531 and 573.

Delassus vs. Parton, 19 Miss., (4 Bennett,) 425.

Perkins vs. Carter; 20 Miss., (5 Bennett,) 465.

These cases are directly in point.

The portion of the acknowledgement which the counsel for the appellants claims to be informal and invalid, is

"And the said Mariette N. Chester, wife of Augustin Chester, (who is personally known to me to be the same person who subscribed the said instrument of writing,) having had the contents of the said instrument made known and explained to her, and being by me examined separate and apart from her said husband, did acknowledge said instrument to be her free act and deed; that she executed the same, and relinquished her dower in the lands and tenements therein mentioned, voluntarily and freely, and without the compulsion of her said husband, and that she does not wish to retract."

The words "and relinquishes her dower to the lands and tenements therein mentioned," compose a distinct clause, separated by commas from, and independent of, the rest of the acknowledgment. They may be parenthesized—they are so by the commas. The acknowledgment is complete without them. They may be stricken out, and the acknowledgment would be good. They are mere surplusage, a recital of more than is necessary.

And this is really all that the acknowledgment does. It recites more than is required. It parts with the estate of the wife, and, besides doing so, it professes to relinquish a dower interest which she had not to relinquish.

The estate conveyed is not limited by the superfluous words in the acknowledgment. The acknowledgment is not vitiated, being otherwise complete, by the further and superfluous statement of the wife that she parts, in addition to her estate, with her dower, which she was not possessed of, and therefore could not convey.

J. P. CLARKSON,
Counsel for Appellee.

Chicago, May 28th 1886,

Hon. John D. Catton
Ottawa

Dear Sir

I am informed that you are to write the opinion in No. 202, Chester v. Rumsey - The printed argument prepared on behalf of the appellants in that cause did not reach Ottawa, notwithstanding my most strenuous exertions until after the Court had adjourned after having affirmed this judgment - I notice that under the Statute of '59 you are permitted at any time within six months after adjournment to change your judgment and also to stay proceedings in the meantime - The questions involved in this particular case seem to me to be of some importance generally and of the utmost importance to my client, Mrs. Chester - I am confident that I need say nothing to induce your Honor to give (as perhaps you have already given) your best consideration to the questions of law involved but as my argument did not arrive in season for examination before a conclusion was arrived at, I can not believe myself to be taking an unusual or improper step in asking your Honor before drawing the opinion to run over the argument which I have submitted. I am conscious that I did not do the case justice in my oral argument but have endeavored to do so in the printed one and think its perusal may aid my clients and the interests, perhaps, of the public - I herewith forward an argument and have turned down a leaf where the discussion of the Illinois statute & decisions commences, the preceding pages being quotations from the decisions in other states, ~~that~~ the acknowledgment in question & the two sections of our act being also set forth on pages three & four -

It has struck me very forcibly that point III, the last one in the argument & on the last page and a half thereof, secured the reversal of this judgment, leaving the main questions unadjudicated to be hereafter presented if the occasion should arise - By a reversal the Plaintiff below might if he could, make proof.

of condition broken of the mortgage which he failed to do in this case, as at present, presented, unless the recitals of the deed from the mortgagee to the Plaintiff were evidence which I have endeavored to show they were not & could not be as against a married woman - Thus the case might again be tried and the Defendants below have the advantage, which by statute ought to be theirs, of a second trial upon the merits - This they can not now obtain unless the judgment is reversed as they took their second new trial after a trial not upon the merits but upon a plea in abatement - Of course this is no reason if they are not entitled to a reversal but it raises a certain equity in favor of this lady which should induce a candid and careful consideration of her case, which I make no doubt your Honor will bestow upon it -

As the action is ejectment and as unless the entry of the order of affirmance or the issuing of a procedendo thereon is stayed the appellants will be turned out of house and home I would urge that the entry of the order of affirmance or the issuing of the procedendo be for the present suspended & until the case is reexamined in the light of the authorities adduced & the reasons presented by the printed argument.

I trust that I am committing no breach of professional decorum in soliciting your attention to the points presented in the argument I herewith submit which arrived too late to be considered before adjournment - and in asking also that further proceedings upon the judgment be stayed until the argument can be fairly weighed and passed upon - It is natural that counsel should be inspired with the conviction that their clients' cause is plainly in their favor but beyond even that natural feeling on my part, I can not but think that further examination will lead your Honor to believe that there are good grounds for a reversal of this judgment.

Very Truly Yrs.

--	---	-------------------

8 And the said defendants, by Dow & Fuller, their attorneys, come and defend the wrong and injury, &c., and pray judgment of the said plaintiff's declaration filed herein, because they say that before the filing of the said declaration, and before they, the said defendants, were notified by notice and copy of declaration as alleged in said declaration, to-wit: in the February Special Term of the Circuit Court of Cook County, before the Honorable the Judge thereof, then and still being holden at the city of Chicago, County of Cook, and State of Illinois, he, the said plaintiff, impleaded them, the said defendants, and filed his certain declaration against them in a certain plea of ejectment, for the recovery of possession of the same identical premises in the said plaintiff's declaration in this present suit mentioned, and did therein upon the 28th day of March, A. D. 1859, the same being one of the days of the March term of said Court, recover judgment by default against these defendants, for the recovery of the said premises in said plaintiff's said declaration in that behalf mentioned, (being, as aforesaid, the same premises in the said plaintiff's declaration in this suit mentioned) together with costs of suit, for the reversal of which said judgment, the said defendants sued and prosecuted out of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, within and for the third grand division of said State, next to be holden at Ottawa on the first Tuesday after the third Monday of April next hereafter following, a writ of error, which said writ of error was by the order of one of the Honorable Judges of said Court, made a supersedeas, and to be obeyed accordingly, and thereby operated and still continues to operate as a suspension of the execution of the said judgment so recovered by the said plaintiff against these defendants, in the said Circuit Court of Cook County, as aforesaid, as by the record and proceedings thereof remaining in the said Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, within and for the third grand division of the said State, to-wit: at Ottawa, aforesaid, more fully appears.

9 And the said defendants further say, that the said writ of error so sued and prosecuted by the said defendants, out of the said Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, within and for the third grand division of said State, for the reversal of the said judgment, hereinbefore set forth, so recovered against these defendants by said plaintiff, as aforesaid, was so sued and prosecuted by the said defendants out of the said Supreme Court, before the commencement of this suit by the said plaintiff, and before the filing of the said plaintiff's said declaration herein, and before they, the said defendants, were notified by notice and copy of declaration, as alleged in said declaration by said plaintiff filed herein.

And the said defendants further say, that the parties in this and the said former suit, and in the said writ of error, so sued and prosecuted out of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, for the third grand division of said State, by the said defendants against the said plaintiff for the reversal of the said judgment so recovered against these defendants by said plaintiff as aforesaid, are the same and not other or different persons; and that the said former suit, wherein said judgment was so recovered, as aforesaid, was brought for the recovery of the same premises mentioned in this declaration, and no other. And that the said writ of error so sued and prosecuted out of the said Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, within and for the third grand division of said State, for the reversal of the said judgment so recovered by the said plaintiff against these defendants, in said former suit as aforesaid, is still depending and undetermined in the said Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, before the Honorable the Judges thereof. And this they, the said defendants, are ready to verify. Wherefore, they pray judgment of the said declaration, by said plaintiff filed in this suit, and that the same may be quashed, &c.

DOW & FULLER,
Defendants' Attorneys.

10 Affidavit by Augustin Chester of truth of plea, annexed thereto.

11 October 15th, A. D. 1859. Replication filed by plaintiff in the following words and figures:

JULIAN S. RUMSEY,	}	In the Superior Court of Chicago. Ejectment.
vs.
AUGUSTIN CHESTER and MARIETTE N. CHESTER.

And the said plaintiff saith that his said declaration, by reason of anything by the said defendants in their said plea above alleged, ought not to be quashed, because he says that after the recovery of the said judgment by the said plaintiff in the said Circuit Court of Cook County, against the said defendant, for the recovery of the said premises, as in said plea alleged, and before the said writ of error in said plea alleged had been prosecuted out of the said Supreme Court, and before the filing of said writ of error in said Supreme Court, the said judgment in said Circuit Court so recovered by the said plaintiff, had been and was vacated and set aside, and his said suit had been by him in said Circuit Court dismissed at the cost of him, the said plaintiff, and that at the time of the filing of the said writ of error in said Supreme Court, and the issuing of the said supersedeas in said suit, as in said plea alleged, there was no suit whatever pending in said Circuit Court between the said plaintiff and the said defendants, and no judgment existing nor being in said Circuit Court, in favor of the said plaintiff and against the said defendants for the recovery of the said premises, and that the said judgment in said Circuit Court had been by order of said Circuit Court vacated and set aside, and the said suit had been by said Circuit

12 Court dismissed at the costs of the said plaintiff, before the filing of the said declaration in this cause in this Court by said plaintiff against the said defendants, and the service thereof upon the said defendants. And this the said plaintiff is ready to verify. Wherefore, he prays judgment, &c.

CLARKSON & TREE,

Plaintiff's Attorneys.

cation, to which defendants except. Leave given to plaintiff to file amended replication.

14 November 12th, A. D. 1859. Amended replication filed.

15 December 22d, 1859. Defendants demur to amended replication:
16 Demurrer overruled and issue joined, and cause submitted to Court for 17 trial. Court "finds defendants guilty of unlawfully withholding the premises," &c. Motion for new trial by defendants.

18 December 23d, 1859. Motion for new trial overruled and judgment on the finding.

19 January 17th, 1860. Motion for new trial granted under the statute, upon payment of costs.

20 General issue filed by defendants.

21 May 7th, 1860. Trial by the Court, and issues found for the plaintiff, and defendants move for new trial.

22 September 22d, 1860. Motion for new trial overruled. Defendants enter their exceptions, and judgment is rendered for the plaintiff.

23 Defendants pray appeal, which is granted, and they file their appeal bond and bill of exceptions, according to the order of the Court.

27 On the trial of the cause, the defendants admitted that the said Mariette N. Chester, one of said defendants, is the wife of said Augustin Chester, and that said Augustin and Mariette N. Chester resided on and occupied the said lots of land and premises described in the declaration; that a demand had been made by plaintiff upon the defendants, before the commencement of this suit, for the possession of said property, and that said defendants refused to surrender the same. And the plaintiff, to further prove the issues on his part, put in evidence a certain warranty deed of the lots of land and premises described in the plain-tiff's declaration, in words and figures following, to wit:

"This Indenture, made this first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, between George F. Rumsey and Emily E., his wife, of the city of Chicago and State of Illinois, of the first part, and Mariette N. Chester, of the same place, of the second part, witnesseth, that the said party of the first part, in consideration of sixteen thousand two hundred and fifty dollars, ($16,250,) in hand paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, by these presents does grant, bargain, sell, remise, release, alien and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to her heirs and assigns forever, all the following described pieces of land, situated in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, described as follows, to wit:

30 Duly acknowledged by George F. Rumsey and his wife, before Notary Public, November 11th, A. D. 1856.

The plaintiff then offered in evidence a certain mortgage purporting to have been executed by the defendants, Augustin Chester and Mariette N. Chester, his wife, of and upon the lots of land and premises in question, and in words and figures following, to wit:

30 “ This Indenture, made this first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, between Augustin Chester and Mariette N., his wife, of Chicago, State of Illinois, party of the first part, and George F. Rumsey, of the same place, party of the 31 second part. Whereas, the said party of the first part is justly indebted to the said party of the second part in the sum of thirteen thousand and eighty ($13,080.00) dollars, secured to be paid by two certain promissory notes bearing even date herewith, payable to the order of the party of the second part as follows : ($6,720.00) six thousand seven hundred and twenty dollars November first, A. D. 1857, and ($6,360) six thousand three hundred and sixty dollars November first, A. D. 1858, the same being for a part of the purchase money and interest at six per cent. per annum, agreed to be paid for the premises herein described. Now, therefore, this indenture witnesseth, that the said party of the first part, for the better securing the payment of the money aforesaid, according to the tenor and effect of the said two promissory notes above mentioned, and also in consideration of the further sum of one dollar, to them in hand paid by the said party of the second part, (the receipt whereof is forever, all the following described lots, pieces or parcels of land, situated in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, viz :

32 Lots (7) seven and (8) eight and the south (29) twenty-nine feet of lots (9) nine and (10) ten in block (24) twenty-four, in Wolcott's Addition to the City of Chicago, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, with the rents, issues and profits thereof, and all the estate, interest and claim whatsoever of the said party of the first part, in law as well as in equity, in and to the premises hereby conveyed.
To have and to hold the same, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, and to their only proper use, benefit and behoof.

 Provided always, and these presents are upon this express condition, that if the said party of the first part, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, to the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, the aforesaid sum of money, at the time and in the manner specified in the above mentioned promissory notes, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, then these presents and everything herein expressed shall be absolutely null and void. But in case of default in the payment of the said notes, or either of them above mentioned, or any part thereof, according to the tenor and effect thereof, the said party of the second part, or his legal representative or attorney, ~~xxx~~ after having advertised such sale sixty (60) days in a newspaper published in the city of Chicago, may sell the said premises, or any part thereof, and all right and equity of redemption of the said party of the first part, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, therein, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House, at the time appointed in such advertisement, or may adjourn the sale from time to time, at discretion; and upon the making of such sale or sales as the attorney of the said party of the first part, for such purpose hereby constituted irrevocable, or in the name of the said party of the second part, or their legal representatives, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, deeds for the conveyance in fee of the premises sold; and shall apply the proceeds of sale to the payment of (1) expenses for advertising, selling and conveying as aforesaid, including attorney's fees and (2) the amount due on said notes, (3) rendering the overplus, if any, to the said party of the first part, or their assigns, at the office of said party of the second part, in Chicago, Illinois. And the said Augustin Chester and Mariette N., his wife, party of the first part, covenants with the said party of the second part, and his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that they are seized in fee of the said premises and have good right to convey the same as aforesaid: that they are free from all incumbrance, and that they will forever warrant and defend the same against all lawful claims.

In witness whereof, the said party of the first part hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year above written.

AUGUSTIN CHESTER. [SEAL.]
MARIETTE N. CHESTER. [SEAL.]

To the introduction of which said mortgage in evidence, the defendants by their counsel then and there objected, but the Court overruled the objection and admitted said mortgage in evidence.

To which decision and ruling of the Court, in overruling the defendants' said objection and in admitting said mortgage in evidence, the defendants then and there by their counsel duly excepted.

The plaintiff further offered in evidence the following certificate of publication of notice and notice, the correctness of the facts stated in which certificate were admitted by the defendants without further proof thereof, and is as follows:

"This certifies that the appended notice has been published in the Chicago Daily Times, a newspaper printed and published in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, from Nov. 17th, 1858, to Jan'y 17th, 1859, consecutively, commencing with the 17th Nov'r, 1858, and that we have received twenty dollars for publishing the same.

"MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas, Augustin Chester and Mariette N., his wife, did on the first day of November, A. D. 1856, make, execute and deliver to George F. Rumsey, a mortgage of the premises hereinafter described, to secure the payment of two certain promissory notes of even date with said mortgage, payable to the order of the said George F. Rumsey as follows: ($6,720) six thousand seven hundred and twenty dollars on the first day of November, A. D. 1857, and ($6,360) six thousand three hundred and sixty dollars on the first day of November, A. D. 1858, which said mortgage is recorded in the Recorder's office in and for Cook County, State of Illinois, in book 28 of mortgages, page 183. And whereas, it is provided in and by said Mortgage, that if default be made in the payment of the said notes above described, or either of them, or any part thereof, according to their tenor and effect, the said George F. Rumsey, or his legal representatives or attorneys, after having advertised such sale (60) sixty days in a newspaper published in the City of Chicago, might sell the said premises in said mortgage referred to and hereinafter described, or any part thereof, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House in the City of Chicago, at the time appointed in such advertisement, or might adjourn the sale from time to time at discretion.

And whereas default has been made in the payment of the second of said promissory notes above mentioned, due November 1st, A. D. 1858, for the said sum of six thousand three hundred and sixty dollars ($6,360).

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that the undersigned, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by said mortgage above referred to, will on Monday, the seventeenth day of January next, A. D. 1859, at 10 o'clock a. m., sell at public vendue, at the north door of the Court House in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described premises, (being the same premises described in said mortgage,) to wit: lots (7) seven and eight (8) and the south (29) twenty-nine feet of lots (9) and (10) in block (24) twenty-four, in Wolcott's Addition to Chicago, situated in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, for the purposes in said mortgage described.

CLARKSON & TREE, Attorneys."

The plaintiff then offered in evidence a certain deed of the lots of land and premises described in the plaintiff's said declaration, from George F. Rumsey to the plaintiff, dated January 18th, A. D. 1859, as follows, to wit:

"This Indenture, made the eighteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, between George F. Rumsey, of the City of Chicago, in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, of the first part, and Julian S. Rumsey, of the same place, of the second part.

Whereas, Augustin Chester and Mariette N. Chester, his wife, of Chicago aforesaid, by a certain indenture of mortgage bearing date the first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, for the consideration of the sum of thirteen thousand and eighty dollars ($13,080) indebtedness from the said party of the first part to the said party of the second part, in said mortgage secured to be paid by the two certain promissory notes of the said Augustin Chester, of even date with said mortgage, payable to the order of the said George F. Rumsey as follows: ($6,720) six thousand seven hundred and twenty dollars November 1st, A. D. 1857, and ($6,360) six thousand three hundred and sixty dollars November 1st, A. D. 1858, and for the further consideration of one dollar, did grant, bargain, sell, remise, alien and convey unto the said George F. Rumsey, his heirs and assigns forever, all the lots, pieces or parcels of land hereinafter particularly described, with the appurtenances, subject to a proviso in the said indenture of mortgage contained, that the same should be void upon the payment by the said party of the first part to said mortgage of the said sum of thirteen thousand and eighty dollars, at the time and in the manner specified in the said two promissory notes, according to their true intent and meaning, with a special power in the said indenture of mortgage contained, authorizing the said George F. Rumsey, his legal representatives or attorney, if default should be made in the payment of the said two notes, or either of them, or any part thereof, according to their tenor and effect, after having advertised such sale sixty (60) days in a newspaper published in the City of Chicago aforesaid, to sell the said mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, and all right and equity of redemption of the said party of the first part to said mortgage, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, therein, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House in said City of Chicago, at the time appointed in such advertisement, and as the attorney of the said party of the first part to said mortgage, or in the name of the said party of the second part thereto to execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed for the conveyance in fee of the same.

And whereas the said indenture of mortgage has been duly recorded in the Recorder's office in and for the County of Cook aforesaid, in book 28 of mortgages, page 183, and whereas, default having been made in the payment of the second of the said two promissory notes, secured by the said indenture of mortgage, being for the sum of six thousand three hundred and sixty dollars ($6,360) due November 1st, A. D. 1858, the mortgaged premises hereinafter particularly described were on Monday, the seventeenth day of January instant, (A. D. 1859,) at ten o'clock a. m. of that day, sold at public auction to the said party of the second part hereto, for the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in cash, that being the highest cash bid, and he the highest cash bidder therefor, said sale being made at the Court House in the said City of Chicago, and having been advertised sixty (60) days previous to the day of said sale in the Chicago Daily Times, a daily newspaper published in said City of Chicago.

Now, therefore, this indenture witnesseth, that the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the said sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) so bid as aforesaid, to him in hand paid by the said party of the second part, at the time of the enscrolling and delivery of these presents, (the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged,) hath granted, bargained, sold, aliened, released and confirmed, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, alien, release and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns forever, all the following described lots, pieces or parcels of land situate in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, viz:

40 Lots seven (7) and eight (8) and the south twenty-nine (29) feet of lots nine (9) and ten (10), in block twenty-four (24), in Wolcott's Addition to Chicago, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, as the same are described and conveyed in and by the said indenture of mortgage, and also all the estate, interest and claim whatsoever of the said Augustin Chester and Mariette N. Chester, in law as well as in equity, in and to the above described premises, and also their right and equity of redemption therein, and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever of the said party of the first part, both in law and equity, of, in and to the said above described premises, with the appurtenances, as fully to all intents and purposes as the said party of the first part hath power and authority to grant and sell the same by virtue of the said indenture of mortgage. To have and to hold the said above mentioned and described premises, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns forever.

In witness whereof, the said party of the first part hath hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

41 I, Charles R. Sheldon, a Notary Public in and for the City of Chicago, County of Cook, and the State aforesaid, do hereby certify that George F. Rumsey, personally known to me to be the person whose name is subscribed to the foregoing deed as having executed the same, appeared before me this day in person and acknowledged that he executed the said deed or instrument of writing freely and voluntarily, for the uses and purposes therein expressed.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my notarial seal, this 19th day of January, A. D. 1859.

CHARLES R. SHELDON, [NOTARIAL SEAL.] Notary Public."

To the introduction of which said last mentioned deed in evidence the defendants, by their counsel, then and there objected, but the Court overruled the objection and admitted said deed in evidence. To which decision and ruling of the Court, in overruling said defendants' said objection to the admission of said last mentioned deed in evidence, and the admission of the same in evidence, the defendants, by their counsel, then and there duly excepted.

The plaintiff then called as a witness JULIAN MAGILL, who being duly sworn, testified as follows:

42 I know the property in question in this suit. I know the plaintiff, and George F. Rumsey, and Mr. Chester, one of the defendants, and was present at the sale of the property, at the north door of the Court House, under the mortgage. Attended the sale on the morning of the 17th day of January, A. D. 1859. George F. Rumsey, the mortgagee, made the sale. He read the notice offering the property for sale. There were a number of persons present. Capt. Mozier was there. I made a bid on the property myself. Julian Rumsey made the highest bid, and it was knocked off to him. There were persons going in and out of the Court House at the time. The property was bid off at three thousand dollars. The sale was about ten o'clock in the morning. The terms of sale were cash; so stated at the time of the sale.

On cross-examination, the witness testified: George F. Rumsey and Julian S. Rumsey are brothers. They were both at the sale, and Capt. Mozier and myself. George Rumsey put the property up for sale.

This was all the evidence in the cause.

42 The Court thereupon found the issues for the plaintiff, and the defendants entered their motion for a new trial, the reasons assigned in which were as follows:

43 1. Because the Court erred in overruling the objection by the defendants to the mortgage by Chester and wife to George F. Rumsey, and in admitting said mortgage.

2. Because the Court erred in admitting the deed of George F. Rumsey to the plaintiff.

3. Because the Court erred in finding the issues for the plaintiff.

4. Because the Court should have found the issues for the defendants.

5. Because the mortgage from Chester and wife to George F. Rumsey was inoperative, invalid and void.

6. Because the acknowledgment of the mortgage from Chester and wife to George F. Rumsey was invalid and insufficient.

7. And for other reasons.

44 Sept. 22d, A. D. 1860, motion overruled and judgment for plaintiff, and exceptions by defendants entered to the overruling of said motion and the entry of judgment. Appeal prayed and allowed.

ERRORS ASSIGNED.

1. That the Court erred in allowing the plaintiff below (appellee) to withdraw his replication to the plea in abatement of defendants below, after the defendants below had demurred to said replication.

2. Because the Court erred in not sustaining the demurrer of said defendants below to the replication of the said plaintiff to said defendants' plea in abatement, and in not finding the issues on said plea in abatement in favor of said defendants below.

3. Because the Court erred in entering judgment for the recovery of the premises in question on the issues joined on the plea in abatement.

4. Because the Court erred in admitting the mortgage purporting to be executed by the defendants below (appellants) to George F. Rumsey, in evidence, and in overruling the objection of the defendants below thereto.

5. Because the Court erred in admitting the deed from George F. Rumsey to the plaintiff below in evidence, and in overruling the objection of the defendants below thereto.

6. Because the sale of the premises in question upon the mortgage in question, and upon which the deed from George F. Rumsey to the plaintiff below was given, was illegal, invalid and void.

7. Because the Court erred in overruling the motion for a new trial made by the defendants below.

8. Because the Court erred in finding the issues for the plaintiff below.

9. Because the judgment aforesaid, in form aforesaid given, was given in favor of the plaintiff below, and against the defendants below, whereas, by the law of the land, said judgment should have been given in favor of defendants below, and against said plaintiff below.

- And now the said defendants by Melville W. Fuller their Attorney and move the Court for a New trial of said cause for the reasons following to wit
1. Because the Court erred in overruling the objection by the Defendants to the Mortgage by Chester & wife to George F. Rumsey and in admitting said Mortgage
 2. Because the Court erred in admitting the deed of George F. Rumsey to the Plaintiff
 3. Because the Court erred in finding the issues for the Plaintiff.
 4. Because the Court should have found the issues for the Defendant.
 5. Because the Mortgage from Chester & wife to George F. Rumsey was usurious, invalid and void
 6. Because the acknowledgment of the Mortgage from Chester & wife to George F. Rumsey was invalid and inefficient
 7. And for other reasons.

In Supreme Court of the State of Illinois
Third Grand Division
April Term, 1861

Augustine Chester &
Marquette N. Chester
Appellants

vs
Julian S. Ramsey
Appellee

Afterwards, writ, on the ~~first~~ Tuesday after the Third Monday of April A.D., 1861, at this same term, before the Judges of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois, came the said Augustine Chester & Marquette N. Chester, Appellants by Melville W. Fuller their Attorney and say that in the record & proceedings aforesaid & in ^{the} rendering the judgment aforesaid, there is manifest error, in this, to wit:

1- That the Court erred in allowing the Plaintiff below (Appellee) to withdraw his Application to the ~~the~~ plea in abatement of Defendants below after the Defendants below had demurred to said replication -

in not

2. Because the Court erred in not sustaining said the demurrer of said Defendants below to the replication of the said Plaintiff to said Defendants plea in abatement and finding the issues on said plea in abatement in favor of said Defendants below -

3. Because the Court erred in entering judgment for the recovery of the premises in question on the issues joined on the plea in abatement

4. Because the Court erred in admitting the mortgage purporting to be executed by the Defendants below (Appellants) to George F. Runney, in evidence & in overruling the objection of the Defendants below thereto

5. Because the Court erred in admitting the deed from George F. Rumsey to the Plaintiff below, in evidence and in overruling the objection of the Defendants below thereto

6. Because the Sale of the premises in question upon the mortgage in question & upon which the deed from George F. Rumsey to the Plaintiff below was given was illegal, invalid & void -

7. Because the Court erred in overruling the motion for a new trial made by the Defendants below

8. Because the Court erred in finding the issues for the Plaintiff below

9. Because the Courts judgment apportioned in favor of Plaintiff given, was given in favor of the Plaintiff below & against the Defendants below, whereas by the law of the land, said judgment should have been given in favor of Defendants below against said Plaintiff below and the said Augustin Chester & Mariette W. Chester, Appellants

by M. W. Fuller, their Attorney pray that the judgment aforesaid for ^{the} errors aforesaid, and other errors in the record and proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled & altogether held for nothing, and that they may be restored to all things which they have lost by occasion of such judgment as

In the Supreme Court
Third Term Session

Julien J. Rumsey appellee

April Term C. D. 1861

ad
Augustin Chester &
Mariette W. Chester Appellants

And now comes the said Julien Rumsey, appellee by J. P. Clarkson his Attorney and says that the first, second and third assignments of error above herin assigned are irregular, improper, and insufficient in law and cannot legally be assigned Because

1. It appears from the record that the ^{defendant} ~~plaintiff~~ below after their demurrer to the replication was overruled, took issue on fact therein and tried the Cause upon said issue.
2. No exception was taken by the defendants below to the rulings of the Court overruling their demurrer to the replication of ~~defendants~~ below.
3. The evidence on the trial of said issue on said pleaded statement does not appear in any manner in said record, and therefore error cannot be properly assigned upon the finding of the Court below upon said issue.
4. Because it appears from the record that the defendants below after said issue was determined in favor of the plaintiff below, paid the Cost of the Case, and took a new trial as of Course under the Statute, thereby waiving their right of reversing the rulings of the Court and the judgment in the case.

And the said appellant by his said attorney says that, as to the assignment of error, ~~frankly~~ ^{frankly} ~~fully~~ ^{fully} ~~exactly~~ ^{exactly} ~~correctly~~ ^{correctly} ~~rightly~~ ^{rightly} and ~~correctly~~ ^{correctly} assigned, there is no error ^{within} in the record or proceedings aforeaid or in the judgment aforeaid, and says that said said judgment (may be ^{in all things} affirmed &c)
