Wabash Circuit Court.

September Term 1886

Naniel Coleman, the Plaintiff in this suit, complains of John Coffey the defendant in this suit being summoned &c of a plea of Trespass on the case on promises. For that whereas the said defendant herebefore to wit: on the ninth day of March 1887 at the County of Wabash and State of Illinois in consideration that the said Plaintiff at the special instance and request of the said defendant would relinquish and sell to said defendant all his rights, title and interest in a Land Warrant of the United States for one hundred and sixty acres of land, said Land Warrant numbered 17653 the rights or title to which said Land Warrant was then in the said Plaintiff, to the said Defendant, for the said defendant in and to and then and there faithfully promised the said Plaintiff to pay him the said Plaintiff for such relinquishment and sale, the sum of one hundred and five dollars.

And the said Plaintiff avers that he confiding in the said promise and undertaking of the said Defendant, and afterwards to wit: on the day and year last aforesaid, at the County and State aforesaid, duly relinquish and sell to the said defendant, all his rights, title and interest in and to the said Land Warrant of the United States No. 17653 for one hundred and sixty acres of land as aforesaid, whereof the said defendant afterwards to wit: on the any and year last aforesaid, at the County and State aforesaid had notice. By means thereof and according to the tenor and effect of the said promises and undertakings, he the said defendant then and there became liable to pay to the said Plaintiff the said sum of One hundred and five dollars when he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested. And being so liable he the said defendant in consideration thereof afterwards to wit: on the any and year last aforesaid at the County and State aforesaid, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said Plaintiff to pay him the said sum of One hundred and five dollars according to the tenor and effect of the said promise and undertaking. And whereas the defendant on the 4th day of July 1865 at the County and State aforesaid was indebted to the Plaintiff in Two hundred dollars for money then and there lent by the Plaintiff to the defendant at his request. And in Two hundred dollars for money then and there paid by the Plaintiff for the use of the defendant at his request. And in Two hundred dollars for money then and there received by the defendant for the use of the Plaintiff.

And in Two hundred dollars for money found to be due from the defendant to the Plaintiff on an account then and there stated between them.

And whereas the defendant afterwards to wit on the day and year last aforesaid at the County and State aforesaid, in consideration of the premises respectively, then and there promised to pay the said several sums of money respectively to the Plaintiff on request: Yet he hath disregarded his promises and hath not paid the said several sums of money nor either of them, nor any part thereof. (although often requested so to do) to the Plaintiff amount of Two hundred dollars and thereupon he brings suit &c

18th Remembrance) that on the 13th day of September A.D. 1861 being the 4th day of the September term of the Circuit Court in and for the County of Wabash & State of Illinois the following styled cause coming on to be heard before the Hon Edwin Pucher Judge and a Jury to Wit.

Daniel Coleman }
vs }
John Cofer } Appant.

At this day come the parties by their Attorneys and the Plaintiff's Attorneys file a demurrer to the 4th Plea of the defendant which demurrer is sustained by the Court. And issues being joined by the parties, a jury comes to wit: Thomas S. Deputy, William Swain, Samuel S. Allen, Daniel O'Flynn, George O. Letherland, Hiram Buchanan, George P. Dault, James C. Ashford, Henry Brundage, William Sturman, Robert Buchanan, and Alfred Putnam twelve good and lawful men, who being duly elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined, upon their oaths say: "We the jury find for the Plaintiff, and assess his damages at the sum of One hundred and five dollars"

And afterwards to wit: On the 14th day of September A.D. 1861. being the 5th day of said term of the said circuit Court. viz.

Daniel Coleman
John Coffey

Apampsit

At this day comes the defendant by his Attorney's and moves the Court for a new trial and in arrest of Judgment herein, and the Court not being sufficiently advised takes time.

And afterwards to wit: On the 9th day of April 1861 being the 8th day of the April term of said Court.

Daniel Coleman
John Coffey

Apampsit

Now on this the Court being sufficiently advised. It is ordered by the Court that the Motion of defendant for a new trial made at the September term of this Court is overruled, and Judgment on verdict of Jury is affirmed therein.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the Plaintiff have and recover of the said defendant the said sum of one hundred and five dollars for his damages, together with his costs and charges herein and thereof have execution &c.

And afterwards to wit: On the 10th day of April by said Plaintiff, who attempted to locate it at the land office in Springfield, Illinois - That afterwards said warrants was by the General Land office returned to said Plaintiff for re-assignment - That Plaintiff, who was a resident of Indiana, forwarded the same to Horiam, Dill of Mount Carmel and that while in his possession and before any re-assignment had been made, it was destroyed by fire - That defendant who, before that time had married, proposed to the agent of said Plaintiff to buy his interest in said Warrant, and agreed with said Plaintiff that if said Plaintiff would execute a release of his interest in and to said warrant he, said defendant, would pay to said Plaintiff the sum of One hundred and five dollars - That said Plaintiff accepted such proposition, and in accordance with such proposition, executed a release and had it acknowledged before a Notary Public - and then forwarded it to his agent in Mount Carmel according to the terms of such agreement. That said agent presented such release to said defendant and demanded the money therefor, which defendant refused to pay unless said agent would insure that he could get a new warrant for the one destroyed. This was all the evidence in the cause. The Jury after deliberation returned into costs. The following verdict.

"We the jury find for the Plaintiff and assess his damages at One hundred and five dollars."

Whereupon the defendant by his counsel (moved) the court for a new trial, which motion is overruled by the court, to which decision of the court in overruling such motion, the defendant by his counsel excepted. and prays that this his Bill of Exceptions may be signed and sealed by the court, which is done.

Edwin S. Peck, Clerk
Judge Circuit Court

Appeal Bond

Know all men by these presents, that we, John Cook, and Lewis Schaefer Senr; of the County of Gratiot and State of Illinois, are held and firmly bound unto Daniel Coleman of Shelbyville Indiana, in the penal sum of Two Hundred dollars, current money of the United States, for the payment of which well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and Administrators, jointly severally, and firmly by these presents, witness our hands and seals this 12th day of May AD 1865

The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas, the said Daniel Coleman did, on the ninth day of April A.D. 1861 in the circuit court, in and for the county and state aforesaid, recover a judgment against the above bound John Coff, for the sum of one hundred and five dollars damages, with costs of suit, from which judgment of the said circuit court the said John Coff has prayed for, and obtained and appeal to the Supreme Court of said State.

Now if the said John Coff shall duly prosecute this said appeal with effect, and shall moreover pay the amount of the judgment, costs, interest and damages, remained and to be rendered against him, in case the said judgment shall be affirmed in the said Supreme Court, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
