Dear Sir On the 3th of Oct 1855. I remited to you the amt. of the one -closed fee bill. In a check drawn by ^{Mr} Byers ~~Cambridge~~ on Parley & Burks date of St Louis Payable to your order. at the same time I wrote you that Mr Dunlap wished to keep the fee bill to aid him in sitting with Judge Thomas. I supposed that it was not verry important whither the fee bill was returned or not so you got the money & credited your Fee Book. If it was important to have it returned I should have thought you would have wrote me to that effect before taking a rule on the former Sheff of this County for its return I now return the same & hope you will find it all right

yours respectfully
C. Mathews late
Sheff Mc Ills
