ss. Royal A. B. Mills of Chicago Cook County Illinois, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is one of the firm of John R. Mills & Co, merchants doing business in Chicago, that said firm is composed of John R. Mills, Royal A. B. Mills and William A. Crawford, that some time in the month of May or June A.D. 1856, Daniel Wilson and Airam J. Wilsie (as this affiant is informed & verily believes to be true) hired John Bigelow & William Henry Bigelow to come to Chicago and purchase what goods, they could in Chicago in the name of Peterson & Bigelow, of which firm said William A. Bigelow was a member, said goods to be delivered to said Wilson & Wilsie without the knowledge or consent of said Peterson of said firm - that in pursuance of said hiring, said John Bigelow & William A. Bigelow came to Chicago and purchased of said firm of John R. Mills & Co a large amount of goods, to wit, of the value of thirteen Hundred and twenty six dollars and sixteen cents - which goods were delivered and shipped to Peterson & Bigelow, that on their way between Chicago and Greenfield, Minnesota Territory the place of business of Peterson & Bigelow, said goods were delivered to said Daniel Wilson & Airam J. Wilsie, and that said Wilson & Wilsie in pursuance of their fraudulent design upon the Chicago Merchants (as agreed upon between them & said John Bigelow & William H Bigelow, before the said goods were purchased) took possession of said goods and secretly sold the same for themselves the said Daniel Wilson & Hiram J. Wilkie - that under the fraudulent agreement between the said Bigelows & Wilson & Wilkie, the said goods were not bought for Peterson & Bigelow & were never intended to go into their possession, but were fraudulently purchased by said Bigelows in the name of Peterson & Bigelow for the said Daniel Wilson & Hiram J. Wilkie - and did actually go into the hands of said Wilson & Wilkie, and that the freights on the same were paid by said Wilson & Wilkie, and that they sold them & got the money for the same. That at the time the goods were purchased, said William H Bigelow represented to this affiant and his partners that the firm of Peterson & Bigelow were good & able to pay all of their debts, when at that time they could not meet their liabilities and were on the verge of insolvency and did shortly after that assign their property - and that at the time said Bigelow was kind to come to Chicago to ^{buy} said goods, said Wilson & Wilkie well knew that they Peterson & Bigelow were almost if not quite insolvent, and knew that they Peterson & Bigelow never would be able ^{to pay} for one cent of the goods so fraudulently purchased by said Bigelows for them Wilson & Wilkie - and that said Wilson & Wilkie intended to cheat & defraud this affiant and his said Partners out of the money for said goods, and that the said Bigdows were their tool for that purpose, that the whole matter was got up avowedly to cheat and defraud the Chicago Merchants, and that said goods were purchased about the 19th of June A.D. 1856, and that the goods were worth Thirteen Hundred and Twenty Six dollars and sixteen cents and that the whole of said sum is now due and unpaid, and that the said firm of John R. Mills & Co have suffered other & further loss and ~~danger~~ damage in expenses & otherwise in this matter and that they are about commencing an action on the case to recover the value of their goods, so fraudulently obtained by said Daniel Wilson & Hiram J. Wilsie and that the same will be in dan-

In the matter of the return of the Sheriff of Cook County to the writ of Habeas Corpus, in behalf of Daniel Wilson. —

David Strunk being duly sworn says that on Monday the Eighteenth day of May instant, he was by the Judge of the Recorder's Court of the City of Chicago specially appointed State Attorney Pro Tem to prosecute in behalf of and represent the people of said State, at the present term of said Court. — That the Grand Jury then sitting having on that same eighteenth day of May instant, considered the Complaint upon which said Daniel Wilson was held in custody, appeared in said Recorder's Court, and advised the Court that they found "no bill" upon said Complaint, and thereupon the Judge of said Court, ordered the said Wilson to be discharged from the said arrest — and from his imprisonment under and by virtue of the Warrant and Complaint.

wherein it be had theretofore been in custody - That the Sheriff of said Cook County, applied to Deponent for information, as to his duty in regard to the return he was to make under the circumstances, to said Writ of Habeas Corpus - That Deponent was then and there advised by said Sheriff, that there had been lodged with him for service upon said Wilson one or more writs in civil actions, which he was required to serve on said Wilson, so soon as he was discharged from his former imprisonment, if his discharge should be ordered under the law - Deponent then and there advised said Sheriff, that it was proper he should make a return of the facts as they existed to the writ of Habeas Corpus, which would doubtless be satisfactory, as a discharge of the Prisoner from imprisonment on the charge then depending against him was all the writ was intended to accomplish at most - & that since he had been discharged by order of the Recording Court, wherein the Complaint was depending

I was no longer restrained of his liberty, the whole object of the writ was satisfied, & such a return would unquestionably be entirely satisfactory - That said Sheriff remarked to Deponent, that he was desirous of fully complying with his duty as Sheriff & to achieve perfect obedience to the mandate of the writ of Habeas Corpus - and Deponent had no suspicion that the return made by the Sheriff, in the premises, would not fully meet the views of the Counsel, who managed the case of the said Wilson - That as Deponent believes from the facts within his knowledge the said Sheriff acted in the most perfect good faith, & with a sole wish & intention of the performing of his official duties in respect of the matters in controversy & with no possible intention of disobedience or violation to the mandate of the writ of Habeas Corpus - and that if he has not fully and technically performed his whole duty in this regard - as Deponent believes - he was innocently misled by the advice Deponent gave him - & that he has not been guilty of any intentional disrespect to the order of said Supreme Court or of any intentional contempt -

And further Defendant says not -

Your Petitioner, Daniel Wilson humbly represents unto your Honor, that on or about the seventh day of May instant, he was arrested under and by virtue of a warrant, a copy of which is herunto attached marked "A", and that no affidavit was made to obtain the same. That he was so arrested at Galesburg, in this state, and on the evening of said seventh day of May he having been brought from Galesburg to the city of Chicago, he was taken before J. S. Milliken Esq the Justice who issued the same, that he was there without counsel and denied time to procure evidence and counsel, and the said Magistrate held him to bail in the sum of $3,500 - and adjourned the examination until the 21st inst - and your Petitioner further represents that he could not procure bail in so large a sum, and was, in default thereof, committed to the common jail of the County of Cook where he is now restrained of his liberty by the jailor thereof William J. Tenbrook and John L. Wilson, and that the said jailor claims to hold him by virtue of a mittimus, a copy of which is herunto attached marked "B" - and your Petitioner further represents that he is advised by his counsel and truly believes that no crime is charged in either of said warrants, and that he is illegally and unjustly deprived and restrained of his liberty.

Wherefore he prays a writ of Habeas Corpus to discharge him from custody.
