Black

William, R. O. Barnard
Charles Barnard and Rudolph Adams,
late doing business under the firm, name and style of Barnard, Adams & Co

motion to strike from the roll of attorneys

vs
Samuel, S. Black,

In the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois 2nd Grand Division at Springfield January Term A. D. 1859.

This affiant William, R. O. Barnard upon oath states that he is one of the late firm of Barnard, Adams & Co which said firm was composed of William, R. O. Barnard - this affiant Charles Barnard of the city of Saint Louis, State of Missouri and one Rudolph Adams of the city of Philadelphia State of Pennsylvania - said firm doing business in the city of Saint Louis State of Missouri

This affiant further states that the said firm of Barnard, Adams & Co some two or three years ago had placed in the hands of J. H. Sweeney, Esq. Atty at Ashville, Ills, a note of Peptia Wilson residing at Versailles, Brown Co, Ills, for the sum of three hundred and as this affiant is informed and believes the said Samuel, S. Black has executed his note dated July, 1859, for the sum of ~~four~~ hundred and one $\frac{38}{100}$ ($401\frac{38}{100}$) dollars, to cover amount of said note and interest and also given our agents Messrs. Bagby & Anderson Attorneys & Counsellors at Law a power of attorney to confess judgment against him on the said note of $(\$401\frac{38}{100})$ four hundred and one $\frac{38}{100}$ dollars

This affiant further states that the said Black has not only had the said sum of money in his hands for the length of time above stated but has as they believe converted the same to his own use and he further states that the said firm has always been willing & offered to allow the said Black his reasonable fees and to receive the balance from him after deducting his fees as aforesaid but for the said Black although he has long since received his reasonable fees refused to pay over the balance.

This affiant therefore on behalf of said firm prays that a rule may be given against the said Samuel, S. Black to show cause at some time to be fixed by this Honorable Court why his name should not be stricken from the roll of attorneys of the said state of Illinois and further affiant says not.

Barnard, Adams & Co. }
vs } motion for m. & c.
Samuel S. Black }

This day came said plaintiff by Nelson, attorney, and filed the affidavit of W. S. W. Barnard, one of the above firm, setting forth and showing to the Court, that they placed in the hands of J. W. Sweeney, attorney, a note of Lepta Wilson for the sum of three hundred and twenty two ³⁴ 100 dollars for collection, which said note was placed by said Sweeney in the hands of said Samuel S. Black, and by said Black, ^{as attorney} said note was collected and the money received thereon; and that although said Black has been often requested to pay over to said plaintiff the sum of money so collected and received by him with interest thereon, yet he has hitherto wholly neglected and refused to do so.

Wherefore it is ordered by the Court that the said Samuel S. Black be required to appear before the Court between this and the 19th day of this month, and show cause, if any he has, why his name should not be stricken from the Roll of Attorneys of this Court, and that the Clerk of this Court cause a certified copy of this order to be served upon the said Samuel A. Black.
