Supreme Court of Illinois

Hoessinger et al

vs.

Stephen et al

State of Illinois

Supreme Court - Third Division

Joseph Kossinger and Joseph Stovs -

Appellants

Sebastian Stephen &

Nicholas Klingler, who

Sues for the use of

Anthony Scheidt

Appellees

Appeal from Hill Circuit Court.

I Alexander McIntosh the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Hill and State of Illinois, do certify that on the 10th day of March A.D. 1860 that being one of the regular days of the March Term of said Circuit Court, an Appeal was prayed to the Supreme Court, from the final determination and judgement of said Court, by the defendants, in a certain cause on the Common law docket, wherein Sebastian Stephen, and Nicholas Klingler who sums for the use of Anthony Scheidt was plaintiffs and Joseph Krossinger and Joseph Stubs was defendants.

That said appeal was then & there duly allowed by said Circuit Court upon said appellants filing Bill of exceptions and proper bond in the penal sum of five hundred dollars with Michael Sebastian as surety by the first Monday of April then-next. And further certify that said appellants have perfected their said appeal by filing a bill of exceptions, and a proper bond with said surety within the required time; by virtue of which appeal the judgement of said Court in said cause is now suspended. And further that ^{within} said appellants nor any one for them has ever applied for any transcript or record of said cause - and that none such has ever been made out -

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & affixed the seal of said Will County Circuit Court - Done at Joliet in said County this 19th day of April A D 1860
