

No. 12390

Supreme Court of Illinois

Cooper, et al.

vs.

McClure, et al.

25
Alfred Cooper states
→
John E. McClellan states.

25

12390

1854

Blacksburg Ill

May 22nd 1854

Dear Sir

Enclosed I send you a new and - Cooper Henderson & Co vs Ho & M. Colonial, an appeal case from the McLean Circuit with assignment of errors and bond for cost which you will please file and place on the trial docket for the June term and write me what number it will be and when it will probably be reopened on a call of the docket I also enclose you $500 to pay on the cost.

Your attention to this and early answer will oblige

Very Respectfully

Yours &c

H. Walker

22) Alfred Cooper vs John. E. McClure } In Supreme Court } Term June 1854.

Defendant McClure Enters a motion to dismiss the appeal herein for the following Reasons—

- 1st Because the appeal bond is informal and insufficient.
2. Because the decree of the Circuit Court is for costs only & the matters contained in said bill do not relate to a franchise or freehold.

Wm. H. Chyffo
June 13th 1854. Said Depts Solicitor

25.
Cooper Henderson Co
25

John C. McClure at

Mo to dismiss Appeal

Filed June 13. 1854.
L. Seland Clk.