

Princeton, April 21-1864

O. N. Gray Esqr

Dear Sir, in Bureau les. vs. Jacob J. Thomson, it is the particular desire of both parties that the case shall be determined at the present term, yet it disposed if possible.

G. W. Stipp

It is also agreed upon honor between Mr. Paddock and myself, that no technical question shall be raised, that no motion to dismiss the appeal, no position that the plffs. form of action is not right, but only such questions as arise under the facts stated in the Bill of exceptions and the act of Congress & of the legislature, but this whole question shall be tried, admitting plffs. form of action to be right, Can be recovered under the facts and the laws -

Geo. W. Stipp Atty for
J. J. V.

Geo. L. Paddock
for Co Bureau

and it is further agreed that the defendant, below shall have the same benefit upon the facts that they could have had under any special plea setting up the same matter

Geo. L. Paddock

for Co Bureau

Geo. W. Stipp

Atty for J. J. V.

188 84

Board Supervisors
Bureau County
vs.
Jacob J. Thomson
Stipulation

Filed April 28. 1864
L. L. L. L. L.