Elliot Anthony, the defendants in this suit, who have been summoned to answer the said plaintiff of a plea

Contrary to the true and effect true intent and meaning

And thereafter to wit on the thirteenth day of December A. D. And the said Elliott Anthony

And the said Elliott Anthony unpleaded as aforesaid in his own proper person comes and defends the wrong and injury whereof and says that the said Articles of Agreement and the several Covenants in said declaration mentioned are not, nor ever or either of them his act done but of this he puts himself upon the Country.

And for a further plea in this behalf the said defendant unpleaded as aforesaid by leave of the Court first had his says action because he says that before the commencement of this suit to wit on the first day of May A.D. 1858 to wit at the City of Chicago, the plaintiff did elect to receive and did then and there receive and declare void the said Articles of Agreement in the said declaration mentioned and this the said defendant unpleaded as aforesaid is ready to verify wherefore he prays judgment &c.

And for a further plea in this behalf the said defendant misleads & by like leave of says action now because he says that at the time of making the said Articles of Agreement in the said Declaration mentioned the said plaintiff had no title to the said lands in the said Articles mentioned, nor had he at time of the commencement of this suit nor has he any title to the said lands or any part thereof so that he could convey the same to his defendant or his assigns and this the said defendant is ready to verify wherefore he prays judgment &c

And for a further plea in this behalf the said defendant misleads & by like leave of says action because he says that before the commencement of this suit, to wit on the first day of May A.D. 1858 to wit at Chicago he paid the said plaintiff the said sum of money in said declaration mentioned in full satisfaction thereof, and this he is ready to verify.

And for a further plea in this behalf the said defendant misleads & by like leave of says action now because he says that at the time of the making of the said Articles of Agreement and to induce the said defendant to enter into the same, the said plaintiff then and there falsely and fraudulently represented to said defendant, with the intent to defraud and cheat the said defendant in this behalf, that he the said plaintiff had paid all of the purchase money for said land he

paid by him and that he had a good title in Equity and would be entitled to receive a Conveyance in fee of the same before the said payments claimed to be due in said declaration shall become due & payable But this defendant avers that the said Plaintiff had not in fact paid up the said purchase money but that a large amount thereof remains due and unpaid which the said Plaintiff has failed to pay and the said Plaintiff was not the owner in Equity of the said lands or any part thereof nor was he then nor is he now entitled to a Conveyance in fee of the same or any part thereof all of which the said Plaintiff then and there ^{well} knew And the said defendant avers that he confiding in the said false and fraudulent representations and not knowing to the contrary was induced to enter into the said Articles of Agreement, that as soon as he discovered the said fraud he offered to the said Plaintiff to wit at Chicago aforesaid to wit on the first day of May aforesaid and before the commencement of this suit to surrender back the said promises to the said Plaintiff and this he is ready to verify Wherefore he prays judgment if the said Plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him.

And for further plea in this behalf the said defendant avers as aforesaid, by like leave for says action herein because he says that at the time of the making of the said supposed articles of agreement in said declaration mentioned with a view to induce him the said defendant to enter into the same and to cheat and defraud him in the premises, for the said plaintiff then and there falsely and fraudulently represented to the said defendant that the said lands in the said Articles mentioned had rented and would rent for a ground rent of One hundred dollars a year And this defendant further says that the said lands are City property consisting in said representation and not knowing to the contrary was then and there hereby induced to enter into said Articles of Agreement Also he avers that the said land had not at any time nor would then & there rent for said sum of One hundred dollars per year, but would rent and had rented for only the sum of Twenty five dollars per year all of which the said Plaintiff then and there knew that the said defendant knew that as soon as he discovered the said fraud to wit on the first day of May 1858 and before the commencement of this suit he offered back to said plaintiff all that had been received by him under said articles, and offered back to him the said plaintiff, the said premises and every part thereof and demanded of said plaintiff all he the said plaintiff defendant had paid under said articles and then and there rescinded the same And this the said defendant misleads as aforesaid is ready to verify where so frays judgment if the said plaintiff ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him To

ELLIOT ANTHONY,
Impleaded &c., Plaintiff in Error, } Appeal from the Cook vs. } County Court of Common EPHRAIM WARD, Defendant in Error. } Pleas.

ABSTRACT OF RECORD.

This was an action in covenant commenced by the defendant in error, against Elliott Anthony, plaintiff in error, and one Julius C. Smith, to recover payment of an installment due upon certain articles of agreement, made between said Ward, of the first part, and Smith and Anthony of the second part.

- 2 Summons issued out of Cook County Court of Common Pleas, May 24, 1858,—returnable to the June Term. Summons returned, served, May 28th, on both defendants.
- 3 May 27th, Narr. filed
- 4, 5. Narr. and copy of articles of agreement.
- 7 June 9, Special Term. Rule to plead extended to Monday next.
- 8 June 10. Defendants filed demurrer to Narr. Plaintiff joined in demurrer.
- 9 July 6th, being one of the days of July Special Term, plaintiff confesses the demurrer; obtains leave to amend his Narr.; Narr. amended; defendants ordered to plead by Thursday morning next.
- 10, 11. Amended narr. and copy of articles of agreement sued on, attached to narr.
- 12, 13. July 8, 1858. Defendants demur to amended narr.
- 15 July 10. Regular vacation Term.
- 16 Demurrer argued, and overruled.
- 16 July 15, 1858. Defendants filed plea of non est factum, in the usual form.
- 23 December 14, 1858, in the November Special Term. The cause was regularly reached upon the docket of said Court, and came on for trial.—Whereupon the said plaintiff, Ward, (defendant in error) made a motion, among other things, to strike the plea, filed by both defendants, on the 15th day of July, 1858, in this cause, from the files, and for a default, so far as the defendant, Elliot Anthony, was concerned, and by him pleaded; on the ground that the affidavits of merits, filed July 9, 1858, in this cause, was not made in behalf of both defendants; which affidavit is in the words and figures following:

“Cook Common Pleas,
JULIUS C. SMITH, et. al.
ads.

STATE OF ILLINOIS—COUNTY OF COOK, ss.

“Julius C. Smith being duly sworn, says that he is one of the defendants in the above entitled cause, and that he has a good defence thereto, upon the merits, as he is advised and verily believes.

J. C. SMITH.”

“Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 7th July, A. D., 1858.

MOSES HALLECK, Notary Public.”

To which motion, the defendant, Elliott Anthony, objected; that said motion was made too late, and should have been made at the first term after the same was filed; but that the plea had been permitted to remain during some five terms of said Court.

But the said court overruled the said objections, granted said motion, and ordered the plea of the defendant, Elliot Anthony, to be stricken out, and his default taken.

To which ruling and decision of the said Court, the said defendant, Anthony, then and there excepted.

And the cause was thereupon tried as to the other defendant, who did not appear, and damages assessed against said Anthony also; and judgment rendered therein against both defendants for the sum of 1964 dollars and nine cents.

ASSIGNMENT OF ERRORS.

SUPREME COURT.

ELLIOTT ANTHONY,
Impleaded, &c., Plaintiff in Error, vs.
EPHRAIM WARD.

And afterwards, to-wit: at the April Term, 1859, of said Court, at Ottawa, before the Justices of said Court, comes the said plaintiff in error in his proper person, and says that in the record and proceedings aforesaid, in giving judgment aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to-wit:

1st. The Court erred in striking from the files, the affidavits of merits filed in this cause, after the lapse of several terms of the Court below.

2nd. The Court erred in striking from the files the plea filed in the Court below.

3d. The Court erred in taking the default of defendant below.

4th. The Court erred in rendering judgment for the plaintiff below.

Wherefore, for the errors aforesaid, and other errors, the said plaintiff in error prays that said judgment may be reversed, &c.

1 The affidavit of Kelly states, ^{that} the bill the motion made by him.

Page 16 of the record (paging at the bottom) Shows that the plea of non est factum was filed by said defendants Anthony & Smith - page 21 of the record Shows that Kelly moved to strike that plea from the files - because no affidavit of merits had been filed on the behalf of Anthony - which motion was allowed by the court -

Page 25 of the transcript - showing the bill of exceptions - recite the same fact & except to it -

Therefore the point made by Kelly in his affidavit - that his motion is incorrectly stated - is disproved by the record of the court itself.

The bill of exceptions (see page 25 of transcript) shows that "the plaintiff made a motion among others to strike the plea filed by both defendants, in the 15th of July 1858 in the cause from the files & for a default, so far as the defendant Ellenoll Anthony was concerned by Now see page 7 of Kelly's affidavit - it which he admits - that if the whole proceedings were set up as he claims them to be - it will asked for a default against the said Ellenoll Anthony, supplied

The affidavit shows positively and without any equivocation or hesitation, that no motion was made by the plaintiff to strike the plea of July 13th 1838 from the files - but that it was as to pleas of Dec 13th, and the ar-mended bill of exceptions shows the same.

There is a great difference between between the plea of July 13th and the pleas of Dec 13th. The pleas of Dec 13th were stricken from the files, and no affidavit of merit was filed on the part of said Anthony to any plea -

In the Supreme

April Term A.D. 1839

State of Illinois
La Salle Co

H C Kelly being duly sworn says that he is the Attorney for the appellee in the above entitled cause, and that the appellee was Plaintiff in the Court below, and that he was the Attorney of said Plaintiff there.

And this affiant says, that the transcript filed by Elliot Anthony in this case does not contain the Bill of exception which was settled signed and sealed by the Hon.
John M Wilson Judge of the Cook County Court of Common Pleas, as the true and correct bill of exceptions in the case, nor does the ~~bill of exceptions which does~~ purport to be the bill of exceptions in said transcript truly state the motion made by the Plaintiff in the Court below, or the decision made by the Court on the motion which the Plaintiff did make in fact make therein nor contains a copy of the ~~settled~~ Plaintiff's motion.

And his affiant further says, that he knows of his own knowledge all the material facts in reference to the bill of exceptions in this case, and knows the what motions were made and what decisions were ~~made~~^{given} by the Court on the trial of this case below, and that such matters are stated in the ^{amended} bill of exceptions which was signed and sealed by the said Judge and which is on file in the Clerk's office at Chicago, and that the circumstances connected therewith are substantially as follows:

The said Elliott Anthony presented a bill of exceptions as drawn up by him self to Hon J M Wilson at ~~the expiration~~ on the last day allowed him for filing the same, or immediately afterwards (but disaf-fiant admits that of the time for filing said bill of exceptions he elapsed, which he thinks was the case, he agreed to take no advantage on account of the expiration of the time) and the Hon J M Wilson signed the same, as he informed this affiant, for the purpose of saving time, with the express understanding that if there were any error in it, the same might be ~~amended~~ afterwards amended.

This affiant objected at the time that said bill of exceptions did not contain the correct statement of the facts in the case, and presented in writing his statement of said facts. That the Judge agreed to amend the same as soon as he could get time, according to the true state of the case, and the said Attorney was informed by this affidavit that the bill of exceptions prepared by him and under the circumstances signed by the Judge, did not truly set forth the proceedings in said cause, and the Plaintiff should insist upon the same being amended.

That some time afterwards the attorney of said Judge was repeatedly called by this affiant to the amendments necessary to be made in said bill of exceptions, and that he agreed to amend the same as soon as he could find time. That accordingly some time afterwards, the said Judge did amend make an entirely new bill of exceptions as a substitute for the first one, and wrote on the first one, the following, as near as this affiant can quote from memory; "The other abstracted bill of exceptions is the correct one, but having been composed at the amendment having been made according to the understanding at the time of signing the same and this affiant heard the Judge direct Mr.

John Kimball Clerk of the Essex County Court of Common Pleas, to insert the new bill of exceptions so lately signed and sealed by him, in place of the first, in the record, saying also to the Clerk, that he agreed with Mr Anthony at the time of signing his bill, that he should amend it, if he found there was any error in the same.

~~That this last bill of exceptions was filed and that the Clerk agreed to do it~~

This affiant learned soon after this circumstance occurred, that the Clerk had made out a transcript of this cause, and instructed therein the said first bill of exceptions, that he made application at the Clerk's office ~~at the Clerk's office~~ ~~aliquotting weeks since~~ for leave to examine said transcript, and was then and there informed, that it was put away, so that it could not be readily produced, that the last bill of exceptions had not then been substituted, but that it would be done in a few days - that last week, an application thereto was made by this affiant, he was assured by the prosecuting charge of such matter in said Clerk's office, that said substitute ^{had} been made, and on Monday the 18th ^{inst} was informed that the transcript of record had been delivered to Mr Anthony, and disaffiant so prosed, from the information he had previously received, that the correct bill of exceptions had been inserted, and would appear in said transcript.

That on Tuesday the said Anthony exhibited letters affiant his transcript in the said Case, and that he was astonished to find that the first bill of exceptions which had been reproduced by the Hon Jno. Wilson, was inserted therein, contrary to his understanding of the said case, and his belief, that the said transcript was delivered to said Anthony by mistake of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, and that through the negligence of said Clerk, the true Bill of exceptions has been omitted therefore,

And this affiant further says, that the bill of exceptions ~~and~~ was first signed in this cause is as follows in stating a motion as made by the plaintiff to strike the plea of non est factum offal the date of July 18 38 from the files, and in stating that the Court decided to strike the same from the files, when in truth and in fact, no such motion was made by the plaintiff and no such decision was made by the Court. That the motion which the Plaintiff did make, was rested on the memory of his affiant himself or of any other person, but was made in writing, and the same is on file in said cause, but is not copied into the transcript presented by said Anthony, and it will appear from said written motion when produced, that the Plaintiff moved the Court below to strike from the files the pleas of Eliot Anthony in-pleaded with the said Julius C Smith of date of the 1st ~~to~~ 1838, because all of said pleas after the first, were said Plaintiff had been filed without leave of the Court, and because all after the first, which was a plea of now est factum, ~~were~~ were filed after an unreasonable delay, and because all after the first, which was a plea of now est factum, were irrelevant and improper, and the from the same written motion it will also appear, that the Plaintiff ~~said~~ asked for a default against the said Eliot Anthony in pleaded with Julius C Smith, for want of an affidavit of merits on the part of said Anthony.

7.

That the said Eliel Anthony then and there made a cross motion founded on his own affidavit, for leave to file no have the pleas of Dec 13th 1838, remain on the docket, and the Court then and there refused to grant said cross motion, ordered said pleas of Dec 13th 1838, to be stricken from the files, and the defendant of the said Anthony taken for want of an affidavit of merits, to which decision the said Anthony excepted.

This affiant says that if the records and files in this cause be correctly certified, the foregoing facts will suffice atty appear, and that ~~the~~ ^{the} plaintiff now this affiant has been guilty of any negle-gence whatever

He therefore prays the Court to award him a sum of certiorari in costs with as may suit the case, commanding the Clerk of the Middlesex County Court of Common Pleas to certify a full record of the proceedings in said cause, according to law.

he has read the affidavit of Ellid Anthony plaintiff in this case in which among other things, said Anthony states to his belief that there is no other bill of exceptions in said case except the one in his transcript, and he states affiant says, that he does positively, and of his own knowledge, that there is another bill of exceptions admended by Judge Wilson in this case, and that there is no possibility of his being mistaken in this matter. That he does not bill of exceptions himself in accordance with the directions of said Judge, and was present when the Judge signed and sealed the same, and that then Anthony was not present, and he says, that he can prose the trust of the writer just as soon as he can go to Chicago procure a copy of said bill of exceptions and motions, and return to this place, and only desires an opportunity so to show that he said Attorney is entirely misinformed as to the facts of the case -

This affidavit further says that he is not mistaken as to the effects of the rec'd sent here, and he says, that the rec-~~Bill of exceptions~~ as presented here by Mr. Attorney presents the singular anomaly of stating that the plea of non est factum filed July 13rd 1838, was stricken from the files, and says nothing as to the pleas filed Dec 13th 1838, which said pleas were a plea of non est factum and five special pleas, to which no replication appears - Not this bill of exceptions leaves it inferentially to be concluded, that the cause was tried on the said pleas of Dec 13th 1838 - nothing being said herein as to what became of said pleas - that this is contrary to the fact, and that the said pleas of Dec 13th were the pleas stricken from the files - It is the intention to strike from the files said pleas as just in writing my ~~presenting~~ affidavit presenting all misconceptions and

And this affidavit further says that the said Anthony has resorted to every means in his power for the purpose of preventing this cause to come up on the real points that were raised in the great injustice to the appellee to compel him to submit this cause on the present

Elliott Anthony Plaintiff in Error vs Captain Ward Defendant in Error Supreme Court of the State of Illinois Third Grand Division April Term 1839.

Appeal from the Cook County Court of Common Pleas - Argument of defendant in error.

The whole question in this case, is, whether there was any error in the Court below striking the plea of Elliott Anthony, Plaintiff in error from the files for want of an affidavit of merits, and refusing leave to allow pleas to stand which were filed without leave the day previous to the calling of the case for trial, and in consequence of the refusal to grant such leave, and the ~~entire~~ entire absence of any affidavit of merits on the part of David Odell on presenting Default against him -

By referring to the last bill of exception and the written motion as contained in the return made to the Certiorari issued from this Court, it will be seen, in connection with the rest of the record, that the motion made by the plaintiff below, to strike pleas of Anthony from the files, and enter a default against him for want of an affidavit of merits, covers the whole ground, and the decision of the Court below thereon, leaves no plea or pleas as to Anthony, undispensed of.

The 14th section of the Act of 12th February, 1833, in relation to practice in the Cook County Courts of Common Pleas, Blackwell's Statutes page 272. Purples Statutes page 324. provides, that "the plaintiff shall be entitled to judgment unless the defendant shall, with his plea, file an affidavit of merits" &c

No affidavit of merits was ever filed on the part of Anthony. The affidavit of Smith, the other defendant in the Court below, had nothing to do with Anthony. One defendant may have a defense personal to himself, as infancy &c - and make an affidavit of of merits, and his co-defendant no defence at all, and the affidavit of merits of the one will not aid the other -

The plea as to Anthony was, therefore, very properly stricken from the files and his default entered, for want of an affidavit of merits, because the plea without such affidavit, is of no force whatever, and entitles the defendant to no defence -

The plaintiff below, waived no rights by not having default entered against Anthony before December 12th, 1838, because said judgment by default, if it had been previously taken, would have been merely interlocutory, and the issue as to Smith would have had to be disposed of, before final judgment could have been given against Anthony - David - Souss Bond 12 Ill 85, Dow vs Rattle 12 Ill 273-

Nor can the delay on the part of plaintiff to ask default, be complained of by Anthony, because that operated in his favor, by affording him the right to file his affidavit of merits at any time before the plaintiff moved for default against him -

Castle vs Judson 17 Ill page 381.

The Court below did not err in refusing to grant leave to let the pleas of Dec 18th, 1838, remain on file. They were filed one day before the cause was called for trial, and the granting or refusing leave to allow them to remain on the files was in the discretion of the Court below, which this Court will not disturb. Conrad v Evans 2 Sc 186.

There is no meritorious defense set up. The only point made is merely technical. The appellee, Steere, who was the plaintiff below, claims that the judgment is regular, and should be affirmed by this Court.

Counter affidavit

Filed April 21. 1889

L. Leland
Clerk

Walter B. Kimball, the Clerk of the Cook County Court of Common Pleas - to obtain the bill of exception in this case - and said Kimball had added the defendant the bill of exception filed herein - And the defendant further saith that he never saw or heard of any other bill of exceptions which was signed and sealed by said Judge John M. Wilson than the one which is now on the files of this court - This defendant further saith that said Kelly spent a great deal of time in fussing over this case - and made out one or two bills of exceptions prior to the bill of exceptions being ~~signed~~ by the said court.

And the defendant
made any agreement with said Kelly ~~regarding~~ concerning the said bill of exceptions - that this defendant recollects at the time when he handed the bill of exceptions to the judge that he remarked to the judge that he believed that the bill of exceptions was correct - but that he could make such alterations as he saw fit - that said judge kept said bill of exceptions several days - that this deponent then called the attorney of the judge to said bill that said judge then marked one or two points which he thought should be altered that the judge altered them and that then said judge in the presence of this deponent signed & sealed said bill & that the bill of exceptions contains all the original amount of exceptions & And handed the same to this deponent who took the bill to the office of the clerk & had it filed there ^{the manuscript} and that this deponent did not see them again until he obtained ^{the manuscript} said bill from the clerk to bring to the court. This deponent further saith that he believes said judge signed sealed said bill of exceptions after all bills of exceptions & amendment had been made by both parties and that this deponent does not believe that there is any other bill of exception which has been brought & sealed by said judge in the case.

This deponent further swears that he believes that said Kelly wholly misconceives the bill of exception filed herein and that this deponent believes that the record of the proceedings of the court accompanying the transcript herein shows that the bill of exception herein is the correct.
