No. _____

Supreme Court of Illinois

Kincaid

vs.

Turner

State of Illinois
Sangamon County

Supreme Dec Term AD 1845

John K. Kincaid Appellant

vs.

Starling Turner Appellee

Whereas it is suggested that in this cause, as it stood in the court below, ^{to wit} in the Municipal Circuit court, at the last June term thereof, no judgment was entered on the verdict of the jury, which was ^{for} $150. damages and costs of ^{in favor of} ~~suit~~ ^{the plaintiff below} which said suit has been brought to this court by said Kincaid the deft below, by appeal. Now to avoid any difficulty, which may in any event arise in the premises it is agreed by the parties respectively that this suit shall be tried in this court as though the proceedings had been regular, ^{in that respect,} and that such judgment may be rendered in this court, and entered of record. (if the decision of the court below shall be affirmed) as might have been entered in this court had the proceedings below been regularly entered.
