 May Term AD 1839

Appeal on Forcible Entry and Detainer And the said Plaintiff by his Attorney comes moves the Court to dismiss the appeal in the above entitled suit for this. That the appeal Bond ^{Does not} contain a clause conditional for the payment of all costs becoming due from the com-encement of the suit to the final determination thereof and is otherwise deficient and imperfect.

Superior Court

Henry Buddock & others vs. in Error } vs. } Appeal from
Wm. Jerome vs. in Error } McHenry

Testimony being duly sworn says that the record in the above cause is not fully certified to this court, in this to wit: The appeal bond was filed in the court below for the purpose of obtaining an appeal from the Justice of the Peace before whom said cause was tried, which is not contained in the record & proceeding certified to this court - and also an appeal bond was filed, ~~for~~ in per-suance to the order of said McHenry Circuit Court, as this affiant is informed & truly believes which is contained in the proceedings certified to this court wherefore said plaintiffs in error pray that a writ of certiorari may issue to the Clerk of said Court to certify a full & perfect record to this court
